

Savor Seattle Hunt Photo Contest

Are you bad at puzzles? Still want to earn a pin and an entry into the grand prize drawing for a Tour de Cuisine spanning all of Tom Douglas's restaurants? Here's your chance!

Snap fun pictures each day as you partake in the Hunt. E-mail them by 11:59pm to: hunt@savorseattletours.com. From all of the submissions each day, we will choose one favorite to post on our wall.

You can take a photo of yourself, other people, food, objects, anything – as long as the photo is taken at that day's secret location. If that day has no secret location, submit a photo of yourself working tirelessly to solve the puzzle or (on Sundays) what you do to take your mind off of puzzles.

By the end of the month, the photo on our wall that has received the most likes AND shares (combined) will receive a Savor Seattle Hunt pin and entry into the grand prize drawing. It's time to start recruiting all of your friends to gain some votes.

Good luck, hunters!
